ADVERSITY BY FOLLOWING YOUR DREAMS

“One Door Closes is testament to the power of the human spirit. Overcoming Adversity continues to be the breeding ground of empowerment and the inspiration to continue to pursue dreams. Tom and Jared have not only experienced this themselves, but they have assembled an amazing group of people that have similar experiences. I highly recommend this book to anyone looking for inspiration and encouragement to never let their dreams die!”

“I recommend One Door Closes to every person struggling to find direction in their life! This book reinforces the power each one of us has inside. Unleashing this power leads to success ONLY if we decide to follow OUR personal dream, and only then can we come to an amazing place in our life. Those who choose to follow their dreams, despite sometimes difficult obstacles, experience amazing results! In their book, Tom and Jared bring to life thought provoking stories that leave us wondering... Am I really following MY DREAM?”
